

The Mystery of Rocky

Rocky was a scientist. He was a very evil man. He was always causing trouble. Rocky was put in prison for six months for stealing a fancy car. When he got out of jail he decided to take over the world. He knew he would need help to take over the world but he didn't have any friends to help him.

One day, he decided to make an ogre. He called him Ollie. Rocky told Ollie the Ogre to capture all the people and lock them up in a huge jail at the top of the mountain. Rocky told them that they would all have to work as slaves for him for fifty years unless they helped him to take over the world.

Detective Dan and Jacko the Dog heard about Rocky's evil plan. They decided to rescue the people. They went to the prison and helped the people to escape. They wanted to arrest Rocky and Ollie but they couldn't find him. Jacko sniffed the ground and followed their scent. Dan looked for other clues.

After a week, Detective Dan and Jacko the Dog found Rocky and Ollie on a train in the city. Rocky and Ollie were working on another evil plan. "YOU'RE ARRESTED!" Dan shouted. Then Dan and Jacko killed Ollie the Ogre.

by Filip Perzyna