

Mum's Long Day

Mum and Dad were on their way to Tesco to buy groceries. Dad was driving the car. Mum was in the passenger seat. Baby Ben was in the back of the car in his car seat.

There was a big traffic jam because there was a car crash in front of them. They had to wait for fifteen or twenty minutes until the guards came and moved the car off the road.

When they finally reached Tesco, they parked the car at Golden Island Shopping Centre in Athlone. They got a trolley with a seat for Baby Ben and then they went into Tesco. They bought the groceries and they bought some books, toys and clothes too.

When they were finished, they drove to Aunt Alice's house. Everyone was hungry so Aunt Alice said we could have a BBQ in her garden because it was a sunny day. Dad got the BBQ ready and he cooked all the food. Mum plated it up and served it out to everyone. Baby Ben was tired and wanted to go home.

Mum fell asleep in the car on the way home. Dad woke her up when they got home. Then they brought in the groceries. They put Baby Ben to bed straight away. "That was the most exhausting day I ever had!" yawned Mum. Dad gave Mum a big hug and they both went to bed.

by Kate Nally