

Detective Dan Saves the Day

by Liam O'Rourke

Detective Dan was part of a secret government agency in the USA. He had to stop the terrorists from trying to take over the world. He was on a mission to stop Captain Barnacle who was trying to take over the world.

Captain Barnacle had attacked America twenty-three times already by sending his powerful air-force over big cities and dropping nuclear bombs on them.

The secret intelligence agency gave Detective Dan secret documents telling him all about Captain Barnacle's next plan of attack. Dan decided that he was going to stop him.

One month later, Captain Barnacle attacked New York. Detective Dan was able to find Captain Barnacle using his magnifying goggles. He found him in the Empire State Building. All of a sudden, Captain Barnacle shot at Detective Dan but he missed. Someone called the police. When they arrived, they put Captain Barnacle in handcuffs and brought him to jail. There was no terrorism for years after that and America lived in peace.

